Establishment of Technology and Innovation Support Centers (TISCs) in Sri Lanka
(Notice to the Public)

National Intellectual Property Office (NIPO) of Sri Lanka, in collaboration with the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) initiated a project to establish Technology and Innovation Support Centers (TISCs) in Sri Lanka on 28th March 2014. It provides Scientists, Innovators and Researchers easy access to patent and non-patent related technical information. When submitting applications to obtain patent protection for their inventions, the applicants are kindly advised to attach a Report on the existing Prior Art obtained from the TISC centers, which will help the patent examiners to examine such patent applications.
